

When did I forget
that You've always been

The St Joseph's Primary School

Footsteps to make a better world.

Your word is a lamp to guide me and a light
for my path.

Psalm 119:105

The word of God is like a flame that lifts you up.

Dear God,
As we start a new
week, open our minds
and hearts to your message and help us to see the plans you have
for us.

Give us wisdom to see the choices we have
and to accept new challenges to become the best people we can be.

Amen

A close-up photograph of several people's hands and forearms stacked together in a circular formation, creating a sense of unity and teamwork. The hands are of various skin tones, and some have painted nails or jewelry like a beaded bracelet. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blue.

"So, whether you eat or
drink,
or whatever you
do, do
everything for God."

1 Corinthians 10:31

John Burningham
Would you
rather...

"Would you
rather..." is a story
about
choices.

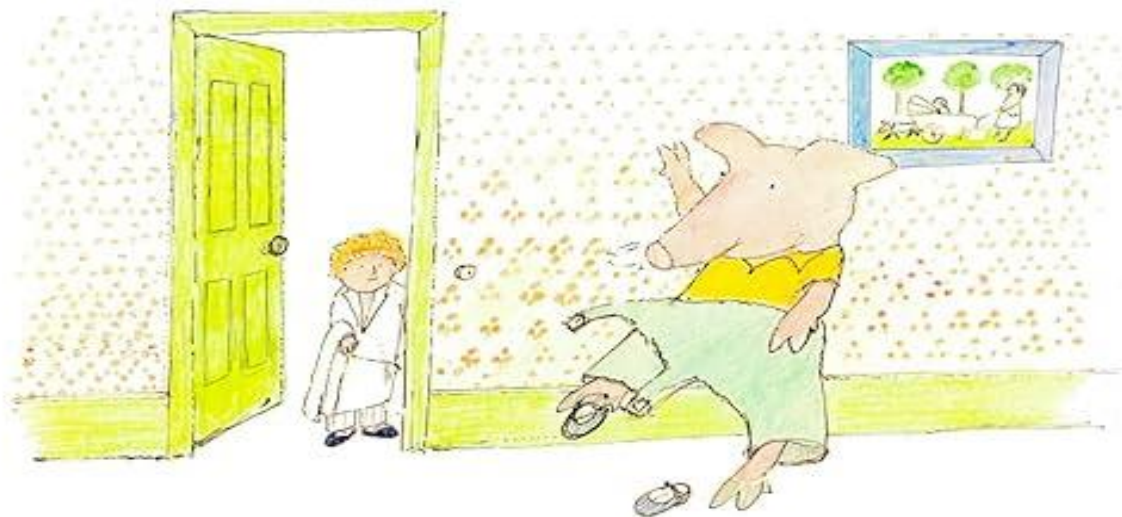

Would you rather . . .

an elephant drank your bath water

an eagle
stole your dinner

a pig tried on your clothes

or a hippo slept in your bed

Or

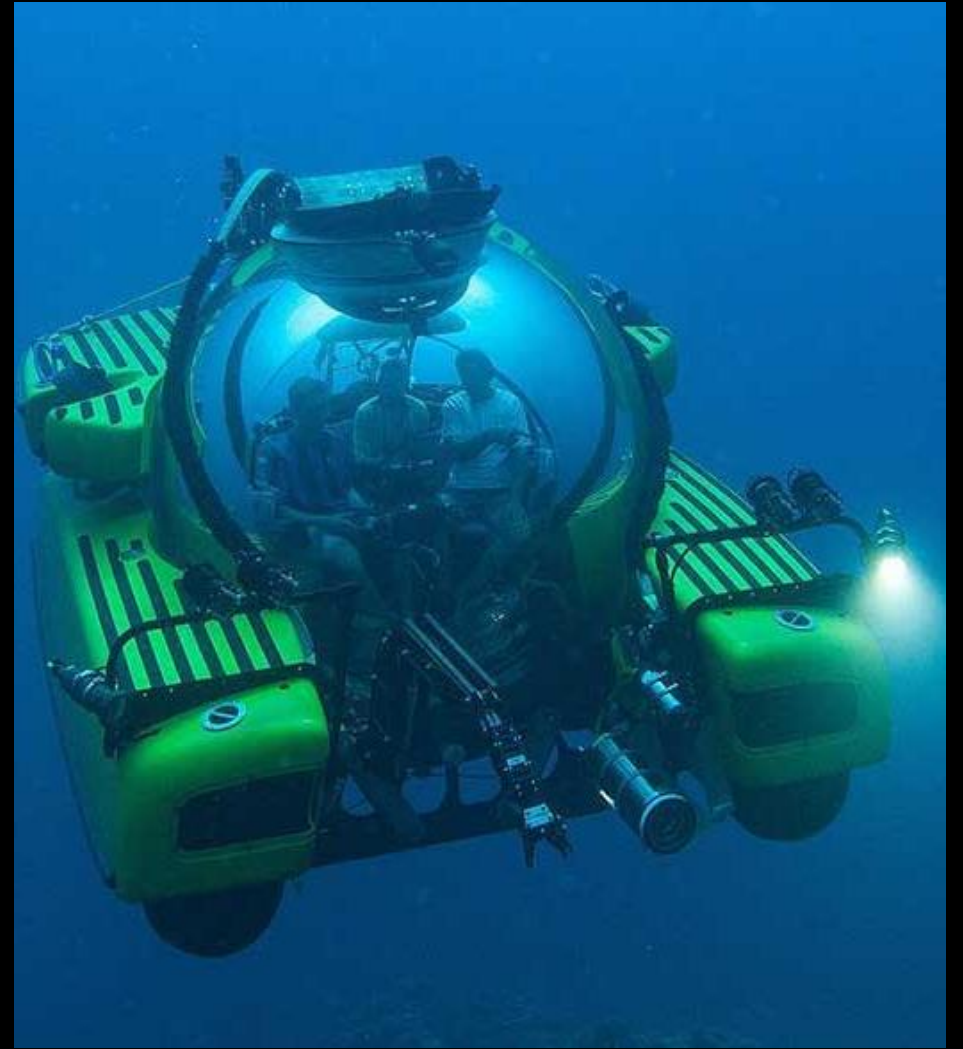

Or

Or

Or

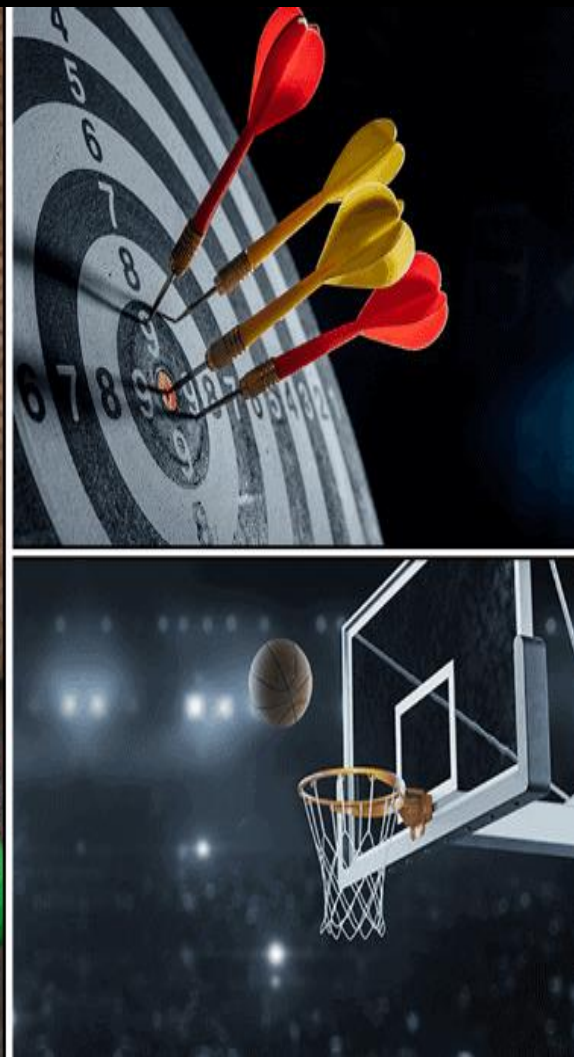

Or

Or

The path in life we follow is our choice

The path in life we follow is
a choice

Your word is a lamp to guide me and a light for my path.

Psalms 119:105

Heavenly Father,
As we start a new week and think of the choices we will face, help us to have insight and courage as we make decisions and take the chances.

Grant us wisdom and help us to see how we can all be a part of making our school better place.

Amen

When did I forget
that You've always been

