Harvest Celebration

The St Joseph's Primary School Footsteps to make a better world.

Dear God,
As we start our harvest celebration,
help us to understand the value of giving to others.
Help us to see, it's not just what we give but how we give that is important.

Amen

¹⁰ "What should we do then?" the crowd asked.

¹¹ John answered, "Anyone who has two shirts should share with the one who has none, and anyone who has food should do the same."

Luke 3:10-11

Now the harvest is all gathered

Now the harvest is all gathered,
Let us eat the Sharing Bread,
In our family all together,
As our custom is, we said.
And we pass the Bread among us,
Thanking God that all are fed.

But there comes a gentle knocking,
Just before we break the Bread, From our neighbours in the doorway,
"Harvest failed for us," they said.
So we share the bread among them,
Thanking God that all are fed.

Soon we hear a growing murmur,
As we eat the Sharing Bread, From the neighbours of our neighbours,
"We are starving, friends," it said.
Then we stretch the Bread out further,
Thanking God that all are fed.

When the world begins to clamour,
We cry, "Take our Sharing Bread, Miracles, we cannot offer!"
"Oh, it happened once," they said,
"Thousands of us ate together, Thanking God that all are fed."

What can we learn from this Chinese Parable?

A still life photograph of autumn harvest produce. In the foreground, there are several pumpkins of different sizes and colors (orange and red), along with various root vegetables like carrots, potatoes, and onions. A large green cabbage is also visible. In the background, a wicker basket is filled with more produce and decorated with autumn leaves. The text "Thank You for your generosity this harvest." is overlaid in a white, stylized font.

Thank You for your generosity this harvest.

Dear God,
Help us to show your love for us in the things we do to serve and give Harvest

Let our actions be ones of generosity, friendship and kindness.

Let your love shine from us in all we do and say.

Amen
